Whereas, in 1988, the law was unanimously amended by both the House and the Senate and signed into law by President Ronald Reagan on Thursday, May 5, 1988, designating the first Thursday of May as a day of national prayer; and

Whereas, prayer brings people together, builds bridges between opposing persons and even political parties, and reminds us that we are created in God's image, and He desires for us to represent Him everywhere we go; and

Whereas, love one another, which is the 2019 theme for the National Day of Prayer, based upon the words of Jesus in John 13:34, "Love one another. Just as I have loved you," and

Whereas, leaders of our Nation have relied upon the power of prayer throughout American history; and

Whereas, prayer has helped pull people through struggles and fears of every kind and also serves as a wonderful way to express love, gratitude, and concern, whether in private or amongst family and friends. Throughout our nation's history, leaders have urged citizens of faith to pray for our land and those who defend our freedoms at home and abroad. For many, prayer is an important part of their daily lives, and on May 2, 2019, we join with people across our country in uniting in a National Day of Prayer; therefore, be it
